

A career in Finance and a path to Entrepreneurship

Sónia Ribeiro

February 5th 2020

ifempower

Universidade Católica Portuguesa

How it all started...

Introduction

Once upon a time...

Math? English? Teaching?

Law?

Economics?

Management?

Lisbon

Parte I

The beginning – Transactions

- Hiring process
- Job interviews
- Masters degrees
- Consulting
- Transaction Advisory Services
- Projects / Team / Competitiveness / Opportunities / Promotions / etc.

Luanda

Part II

Ministry of Finance / Public Finances

- The opportunity
- Debt Management Unit
- The rules / Security
- The country / The culture
- Recognition
- Career outcome / Savings

The World...

Meanwhile...

Travelling

Lisbon (again)

Part III

Back to reality

- Expectations
- Hierarchy / Meritocracy
- Master in Finance

“Larger than life”

London

Part IV

The move

- Promotion
- Health
- Integration
- Need for change – to evolve
- The projects
- Back to the beginning

Porto

Nowadays

The decision

- When?
- How?
- Why?
- The project – “the company”
- Goals
- The decision

Entrepreneurship

The Present and the Future

The challenge

- Entrepreneurship
- Risks
- Rewards
- Time management
- Organization
- Networking
- No fear
- Embrace

The challenge (continues)

- Uncertainty
- Business Plan
- Doors close... Doors open...
- Support / Collaboration
- Learning
- Do not quit

FINANCE ADVISORY, BUSINESS MANAGEMENT & CONSULTING

IFEMPOWER

UNIVERSIDADE CATÓLICA PORTUGUESA

SÓNIA RIBEIRO | FEBRUARY 5TH 2020

LEAD
FINANCE

SERVICES PROVIDED

SERVICES PROVIDED

- Companies setup – Incorporation and legal requirements
- Business plans
- Treasury plans
- Startups and SMEs ongoing support
- Finance Manager tasks outsourced
- Interface with banks – support with raising financing

WHAT FOR?

- Help companies reach their full potential
 - Support owners with management skills
 - Create a sustainable, healthy and wealthy business
- Allow businesses to outsource tasks that are time-consuming and not its focus
 - It can even save costs
- Make sure that startups and SMEs fulfill all legal and tax obligations
 - Be compliant and in control of all requirements

“

“The best way to predict the future is to create it.”

”

Peter Drucker
